Success Comes with a Plan

3 types of people to surround yourself with:

1. The inspired
2. The excited
3. The grateful

THINKGROWPROSPER

My grandpa had two favorite sayings. “Surround yourself with the best and you’ll always be successful” and “If you tie a donkey to a thoroughbred, that horse will never win a race”. Perhaps the first quote is more business-like, but the second provides an image that made an impression on me.

We make decisions every day. Each decision builds a part of the path we are putting together for ourselves. I’m grateful that I am surrounded by co-workers and students who inspire me, get excited about possibilities and are grateful for not only where we are today, but where we are going.

What’s your plan for success?

What’s Up

CAMEX is the campus retailing industry’s meeting place that has grown into the industry’s largest trade show and educational event attracting more than 2,100 qualified buyers from more than 1,060 campus stores.

We applied for a scholarship to attend this year and were notified that we were one of the recipients! We’ll be attending educational programs, the trade show and networking with staff from campus stores across the country in March. We’re very excited to bring back new ideas to UCC!

Do you like to pick up the latest novel on the best seller lists? Did you know that you can order your books through the bookstore and get a 15% discount off of retail prices? Well you can!!

Contact Jasmine at ext. 4699 or send her an e-mail if you’d like to place your order today! We’ll contact you when it arrives, which is usually the very next day.

We’ve added turkey parmesan and honey mustard wraps to our choices for lunch. We’re working on bringing other healthier options in the coming months.

Quote of the Month

- Cheryl Strayed
