

UMPQUA COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOOKSTORE NEWS

Fall is in the Air!

November 2015

The mornings are definitely crisper! I hope you're all staying warm.

A one page newsletter has been one of my goals, to keep you up to date on what we're doing here at your book store each month. Time seems to slip by, but I've finally settled upon a format to start with and so here we are. ☺

Thank you for your support as we venture forward. Your feedback is always welcome and if there's anything you'd like to see us carry, let us know. I'll do my best to see if we can help.

What's Up

Hate stopping off at the store on the way home when all you need is milk or eggs?

For a trial period, beginning Tuesday the 10th we will have a few half gallons & gallons of 2% milk and eggs available in the bookstore. If we are able to sell these items, we'd be happy to keep some on hand for you.

Keep in mind that we close at 4pm, so you'll have to keep the milk in a break room fridge if you leave much later than that.

Micque & Jasmine recently attended the NW College Bookstore Association's Fall Event in Portland. There was a trade show and several educational sessions that have prompted us to change some things up. Drop by and see what's happening over the next few months.

Thank you Faculty members for getting your adoptions into us in such a timely fashion! It is appreciated and helps us save our students money and obtain the best materials possible.
